Takes His Life.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17.—Charles J. Malan, a French-Canadian, 38 years old, who came to Los Angeles from San Francisco, Saturday, committed suicide in a lodging house at 237 North Grand avenue last night. He sealed the cracks of his room and turned on the gas. While awaiting death Malan smoked two cigarettes, ate some pears and drank a bottle of sparkling burgundy. His body was found by a chamber maid today.

HAD SEVERE STRAIN ON HIS HEART

Were it not for the fact that H. H. Stephenson, a carpenter, living at 1151 Hamilton street, remembered that there was such a person as a doctor in the world he would undoubtedly have tried to die in another way.

Stephenson became afflicted with a hemorrhage of the left nostril last Saturday, and tried every known cure under the sun without stopping the flow of blood. He suddenly decided that the receiving hospital was the place for him to go, and, though weak from the two days' drain upon his heart, he made the journey on foot. Steward Borchert treated the case, and the carpenter left, acknowledging his profuse thanks.

C. Figone is Badly Mangled at Elmhurst

Struck by an automobile, containing four men, in front of the Elmhurst power house about 11 o'clock last night, C. Figone, a resident of Elmhurst, was so severely mangled that it is not believed he will survive his injuries.

The occupants of the machine, as soon as they saw that Figone was badly hurt, increased the speed of the machine, and soon disappeared from sight. The news of the accident was reported to the Oakland police and Captain Lynch notified all patrolmen to apprehend the reckless automobilists if possible, but their capture was not effected.

Internal injuries were received by Figone, and it is believed several bones were broken. He is under the care of Dr. J. Hamilton, and at the present writing it is impossible to tell whether or not he will survive his injuries.

FANNY ROSENTHAL TO SUE FOR A WRIT OF
HABEAS CORPUS.

Court Denies Request to Have
Her Bail Money Refunded
to Her.

BERKELEY, Sept. 17.—"Countess" Fanny Rosenthal tried to break into jail this morning. Her attorneys asked Judge Edgar to allow her bail money to be refunded.

Her object was to be taken into custody, and then apply for a writ of habeas corpus in order to get her case considered by a higher court.

Judge Edgar refused to grant this request, as the "Countess" had put up her own bail money, though he could not have refused had bail been furnished by friends of the accused.

The "Countess" is in court today to be tried on the second charge of petty larceny against her. She was acquitted on the first count, and when tried on the second count about a month ago, the jury failed to agree, standing six to six.

The charge in the second count says that Mrs. Fanny Rosenthal on June 23, took from the dry goods store of Hink & Sons, packages to the value of $2.00.

The jury is now being selected for her second trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—No news regarding the condition of the steamer Mongolia, which is ashore on Midway Island, had been received in this city up to 11 o'clock today. The agents of the Pacific Mail Steamship company are anxiously awaiting further information from the scene of the disaster.

The Pacific Mail liner Mongolia, which sailed from Yokohama September 10 for this port, went ashore on the west side of Midway Island yesterday at 1 o'clock. Grabs Horse When Latter Is Victims.

Seventeen-year-old H. Downey proved himself a hero this morning when he stopped a runaway at Fifth and Clay streets just as the maddened animal was about to plunge upon three workmen who were employed in digging a trench for the Home Telephone company along Clay street.

The horse, which had been standing in front of the free market, became frightened from some unknown cause and started directly for the Alch. Downey, who was standing on the corner, saw the animal coming and realized the danger of the laborers. Jumping across the trench he grabbed the animal by the bridle and threw it violently to the ground, its forefeet resting on the edge of the hole.

The outfit was owned by James Trainor, a produce merchant of 739 Adeline street, and was in charge of O. Bennett. It received serious injuries to its nose and mouth and bled profusely, necessitating the services of a veterinary surgeon.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR
SEEKS TO RECOVER
PROPERTY.

Says Man Was Intimidated Into Deeding Away His Possessions.

Alleging that William P. Hook, the furniture and carpet merchant, had induced his uncle, the late Jabez Hatch, to convey all his property to him on the ground that he was to be a co-defendant in a suit brought by an angry husband to ratification of his wife's affections, George Gray, public administrator and administrator of the estate of Hatch, who died April 26, 1925, has instituted an action against Hook to recover a valuable piece of property worth $40,000 in 1921.

In his complaint, which will be heard before Judge Ogden in the Superior Court tomorrow, Gray states that on March 6, 1884, Hatch left a will bequeathing all of his property to one Amanda Hackett, but on March 15, he conveyed a deed to Hook for his property on Broadway between Twentieth and Williams streets. Gray declares that Hatch was of unsound mind at the time and that Hook had induced him to make the transfer by saying that Amanda Hackett did not care for him and that a man named Burns was going to sue him for stealing his wife. The case is expected to attract considerable attention, owing to the prominence of the parties involved.

Create Havoc.

BLOODCURDLING IS OATH DEMANDED BY GANG.

"I swear on this skull, the emblem of death, to be true to the black flag under which I have enlisted. I will be faithful and true to my comrades in all action, and will obey the commands of my captain. Father or mother, wife or child shall not be sacred in my eyes if duty demands their death. If I fail in any of these things, may I be killed and my bones left to bleach like this skull I now grasp. This is my oath."

EASTON, Pa., Sept. 17.—Two members of the "Jesse James, Jr." gang, of Hekertown, which had planned, among other crimes, to wreck a train, burn a mill and blow up a hall, today pleaded guilty to the larceny of books and other things from the public school buildings at that place and were sent to the House of Refuge. They were William East, fifteen years old, who was captain of the "gang," and Floyd Pittman, sixteen years old. Chief of Police Zimpher testified that "Captain" East had confessed after his arrest that each member of the gang had taken oath before he was admitted to membership. The oath, administered by the "captain" while the candidate for membership had his hand resting on a skull, that had been stolen, appears above.

WATER EXPERTS MYSTERIOUSLY RESIGN

SAN FRANCISCO'S ENGIN-EERS DECIDE THEY WILL RETIRE.

Reason Given Is That They Cannot Complete Report In Time.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The board of engineers appointed by Mayor Schmitt to report on the merits of the various water supplies offered to San Francisco for a municipal water system, have handed in their resignations. The board consisted of A. B. Marks of Stanford, Major C. H. McKinstry, U. S. A., retired, and F. Hunt, who built the Spreckels system.

The ostensible reason for their resignation made public by Mayor Schmitt, is that they find themselves unable to make their report within the allowed time by the board of supervisors.

MEMENTO FOR FELLOW CLERK

M. M. Brown Leaves Service of Southern Pacific for New Field of Duty.

M. M. Brown has left the service of the Southern Pacific Company. Mr. Brown has acted as chief clerk of the Portland yard since he came from D. C. about a year ago.

A few of the old timers presented him with a complete set of solid gold buttons. The presentation was made by W. H. Walker, chief operator of the freight department, who said:

"Mr. Brown, we have just heard that you are about to break away from railroading and branch out into business now. We who have worked ship-der to shoulder with you for so many years wish to present to you a small token of appreciation for your kind-ness, understanding, and assistance and integrity. Take it and preserve it and after many years when our hair has turned gray you may look upon it as a token of friendship, not as a reminder of a painful childhood. It is but as an emblem of friendship from the boys and your friends.

"We are all very anxious to see you prosper in your new venture and we know you will."

Mr. Brown in answer said: Gentle- men this is a surprise to me and I thank you very much for this remem- brance. It is not so much what this is as it is the thought and the good spirit in which it is given and the something way down deep in my heart that makes me feel grieved and back- ward about leaving you. I do not be- lieve in leaving you. I do not believe in this office taking the place of the will of any man. I will preserve this trophy as long as I live. I thank you

Fruitvale Realty Man Ends Life Rather Than Submit to Knife

Rather than submit to a surgeon's knife and undergo an operation for appendicitis, David Powell, a real estate dealer of Fruitvale and a veteran of the Spanish-American war, sought an unfrequented spot in Diamond Canyon at an early hour yesterday morning and shot and killed himself. Powell was deliberate in ending his life, and he took five shots at himself at irregular intervals. O E Ryerson heard the shots and he found Powell's body. A physician was notified but the su-

The suicide was deliberately planned and Powell had been in ill health for many months and his spirits were depressed. A few weeks ago he was threatened with appendicitis. He called on a physician, who said it would be necessary for him to undergo an operation. Powell went home and told his wife that he would die rather than submit to a knife at the hand of a surgeon. Powell and his wife occupied separate apartments at the Hermitage on

Hopkins street, at Diamond. When Powell left, his room is not known, but he dressed and went to the street and walked to the end of Fruitvale avenue where he fired the fatal shots, five in all. At the Morgue it was discovered that two of the bullets took effect. One shattered the left wrist while the planned through the dead man's slippers. One of the bullets passed through his hat. The other two evidently went wild. He is survived by a widow whom he had been married to for thirteen years.

STOCKTON FALLS INTO LINE

Industrial Peace Association in That City Follows Oakland's Lead.

The following letter speaks for itself: Stockton, Cal., Sept. 15, 1934. Wilbur Walker, Esq., Secretary and Chairman of the Board of Directors, Merchants' Exchange, Oakland, Cal. Gentlemen: At a meeting of our directors held on Friday evening, September 14, 1934, the interest taken in the work of your association by your honorable body, as published in the OAKLAND TRIBUNE of Wednesday, September 12, was taken up and freely discussed. I beg to state that our directors expressed themselves as deeply conscious of the impetus that our movement for industrial peace would receive, if earnestly taken up by your influential body, and believing that it is only necessary to convince your members of the practicability of our plans, our honesty of purpose, and the necessity for honest education upon the industrial question, in order to obtain your co-operation and support. Our directors unanimously decided that a delegation of our most representative citizens as members of our directorate should visit your fair city of Oakland and lay before your honorable body our plans, purposes and aspirations, together with our wants and mode of procedure, in compliance with which J. F. Lynch, president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association of Stockton, F. J. Kennedy, manager of California Moline Flour Company, George E. Cates, furniture dealer, and J. D. McLaughlin, editor of the News Advocate, the official organ of organized labor, have been delegated as official representatives to visit your association at its meeting on the evening of the 18th inst. for the above purpose. Hoping that a large attendance of your board will be in evidence upon this occasion, I am, sir, in behalf of our directors, yours very respectfully, A. D. HUSSEY, Secretary.

From the Stockton Independent of September 15 the following report is taken: The framing of the bill providing for the appointment of a State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration, which will be presented to the next Legislature, was taken up last evening by the San Joaquin branch of the Industrial Peace Association and Attorney J. A. Plummer, counsel for the local order, was instructed to prepare such a bill. Attorney Plummer, who has had another bill drawn up in another State, submitted the same and it will be made to conform to the law in this State. It is proposed to have boards appointed in the various cities where there are branches of the association to consider all differences between capital and labor, employer and employee, and in case an agreement cannot be reached the matter will be referred to the State board, which will have full power to pass on such cases. With Stockton as the headquarters it can readily be seen that this will be the peace-making center of the west. An auditing committee consisting of J. A. Plummer, Rev. R. H. Sink and F. H. Kennedy was appointed to consider all accounts. J. D. McLaughlin will accompany the publication committee, which consists of G. E. Cates, J. F. Lynch and F. H. Kennedy, to Oakland next Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Merchants' Exchange, which will consider the organization of a local branch of the Industrial Peace Association.

Fiesta of Progress

A preliminary meeting of citizens interested in promoting a Fiesta of Progress in Oakland, met yesterday in the Bacon Building and discussed the various phases of the subject informally. George W. Austin was chosen temporary chairman and Stuart W. Booth temporary secretary. John F. Kennedy has been appointed treasurer. The general trend of opinion seemed to be that the proposed celebration should be undertaken under the auspices of the commercial organizations of the city. It was proposed to form an Oakland fiesta association so that the scope of the affair could be as wide as possible. The following committee was appointed to arrange an open meeting sometime this week at which the entire affair can be crystallized and active work started: C. J. Heeseman, chairman; Theodore Gler, Neph B. Greenfelder, Lakeshore Hotel company; Guy C. Smith, Edwin Stearns, Wilbur Walker, Frank H. Graham, G. W. Austin, F. A. Stearns, secretary Real Estate Exchange; Mr. Kramer, Stock and Bond Exchange; H. C. Capwell and John P. Connors. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade, Merchants' Exchange, Real Estate Exchange, The Central Oakland Improvement club, West Oakland Improvement club, Independence Square Improvement club, and to extend through the press a general invitation to all improvement clubs in Alameda county. Notice of the time and date of the general meeting will be made through the press. "Oakland, Cal., Sept. 15, '34. "W. E. Dargie, Esq., Oakland TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal.—Dear Sir: Enclosed I hand you $5 toward Mr. Austin's fund to celebrate the turning on of the lights. Every little BOOST helps. Yours truly, "B. C. CARY, "Berkshire Apartments, Berkeley."

Cabral cannot talk English and it was impossible to get his version of the trouble this morning. SEVERAL KILLED. READY FOR EMERGENCY

Navy Department Makes Preparations for Any Trouble. WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Preparations by the navy department for any emergency in Cuba continues, but no additional orders have been issued dispatching warships to Cuban waters. The Minneapolis and Newark are underway to prepare for sea but have not yet been sent away. The situation has not yet developed to a point where it is believed that hostilities will be necessary though the Virginia, New Jersey and Louisiana are undergoing the "shaking down" process and can easily be picked up by wireless if it should happen that they are needed in a Cuban emergency.

HE SUFFERED TWENTY YEARS

Victim of Blow on Head Sent to Public Institution After Much Suffering. As the result of a blow on the head, administered as punishment for an offense committed when he was a schoolboy, Charles McDonald, 29 years of age, after going through life for more than twenty years the victim of dementia, was this morning committed by an examining board of physicians in Judge Ogden's court to the insane asylum at Stockton. General sympathy was expressed for the man's mother, a widow, who sat beside her son throughout the ordeal. Several of her neighbors were on hand to testify to the victim's violent conduct at times and to his abusive language and dangerous condition. McDonald, when a boy of 9 years, was struck on the head by Principal Brod, then of the Durant school, who inflicted the chastisement for some trivial offense. Ten days later little Charley began to show symptoms of insanity and in a short while he became raving mad. It was then that the truth was learned and charges were preferred against the brutal teacher, who was tried before the Board of Education and dismissed from the school. From that time forth the boy never regained his senses and as he grew into manhood his malady became more acute. He was subject to convulsions and destructive spells, during which he would destroy anything he could lay his hands on. On one occasion he grabbed a lighted lamp and threatened to burn the house up by dashing it against the wall. Several times he tried to kill his mother and on one of these times he used a razor, but she escaped from the house before she was injured. McDonald also displayed a charitable streak when in his spells. He would take in any tramp he met on the streets and give him his bed; he would take the shoes off his feet even if they were new and give them to a poor beggar while he would put on a pair with the soles worn through. Among the witnesses examined who corroborated the widow's testimony on some things and who were of the opinion that he was dangerous to the public safety were Mrs. W. H. Cook, Mrs. M. Preston, Mrs. A. Morris, Mrs. C. Niemeyer and Edwin Suteland. After a lengthy discussion of the man's condition the examining board, Drs. Buteau and Shirk, recommended that he be committed to an institution, as he was a victim of dementia.

SURVIVORS OF WAR IN ASSEMBLY

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Sept. 17.—About five hundred veterans of the Civil War, survivors of the Third, Fourth, Seventh and Eighth regiments of Pennsylvania, gathered here today for the annual reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic, which marks the forty-fourth anniversary of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation. The gathering was a most impressive one, with many of the veterans being in their eighties and nineties. The program included a parade through the city, a luncheon at the Hotel Hagerstown, and a series of lectures and addresses. The day was a fitting tribute to the brave men who fought for the Union during the Civil War.

The case was brought on for trial on September 10, 1934, the plaintiff claimed that she was deserted for another woman. "If I allowed him to stay out nights and go with other girls, he agreed to live with me," said the wife, in her petition before Court Commissioner Crowell. WIDOW WINS FROM WIDOW

Mrs. Margaret Silvershield, known to all Berkeley students as the "Widow," was granted administration upon the estate of James McCune by Judge Harris this morning in the Superior Court, despite the protest of the widow Mrs. Alvina McCune, that Mrs. Silvershield was a "third wife" and was a lawbreaker. The latter, who is a sister of the deceased, brought several witnesses into court to prove her good character, among them being Marjorie Vollmer of Berkeley, who admitted that she had been arrested several years ago for selling liquor while the mill limit, but that recently her reputation was excellent. Judge Harris accordingly decided in her favor.

CHILD LEFT BY PARENTS

Supervisors Extend Aid to Girl Deserted by Father and Mother.

At the meeting of the supervisors this morning the report of the committee on indigents of the Associated Charities revealed the case of a child deserted by its parents, and a charitable woman performing the duty which had been disregarded by father and mother. The report on the subject was as follows: "We recommend the granting of relief to Naomi May Lash, a feeble-minded girl, deserted by both father and mother. The child is being cared for by Mrs. Clara Simpson, 408 Prince street, Berkeley. Application has been made for admission for the child to the State Home for the Feeble Minded at Elbridge, but pending the admission, Mrs. Simpson is taking charge of the child without remuneration. The overcrowded condition of the home since the San Francisco catastrophe prevents our being able to place the child in the institution, and for this reason we ask that a grocery order be allowed Mrs. Simpson for the care of this child. We suggest that, in order to avoid confusion, the grocery order be made out in the name of Naomi May Lash." OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS. The report also recommended that relief be granted to Mrs. Maggie Bunch, at Forty-first street and San Pablo avenue, a deserted woman with three children: William, 1711 Fifth street, West Berkeley. The committee also recommended that relief be denied to John Joseph Fonseca, 1002 East Twenty-second street; Mrs. Annie Matthews, 861 Kirkham street; Wilhelmina Ayala, 1511 Fifth street, and Mrs. Collins, whose real name, the report says, is Mrs. Mary Miller, who, it is said, "is residing with her son-in-law on Short street, caring for his motherless children, and who earns her own support at the hands of her son-in-law." The recommendations were adopted. Coroner Mehrmann reported that he had held thirty-five inquests during August. Filed. COUNTY BRIDGE. A resolution was adopted readvertising for bids for the construction of a bridge in Brooklyn township. The bids will be opened Monday, October 8th. The requisition of Judge Ogden for a dictionary stand was granted. DEED FROM SOUTHERN PACIFIC. A deed was received from the Southern Pacific to a piece of land in Fruitvale. The letter accompanying the instrument states that the land was originally acquired by Adolph Sutro and was sold for taxes some time ago. The State's title to the land was purchased by a representative of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company with the intention of feeding the land to Alameda county for the purposes of a street. The property forms a part of Capp street between Nicol and Forrest streets and is now used as a street. The deed was accepted and ordered recorded. LIQUOR LICENSES. Permits to sell liquor were granted to Alfred Roney, High street, Melrose; J. F. Velladao, 1338 Fruitvale avenue; J. F. Fisher, southwest corner of Tevis and Fourteenth streets; John L. Bold, northeast corner of Putnam street and Fruitvale avenue; William Johnson, Half-Way house, San Leandro road. Applications for liquor licenses were filed by R. T. Chateau, Walter avenue and San Leandro road; Barbara Baumberger, near San Leandro bridge. A resolution was adopted setting forth the mileage, the assessed value of the whole franchise, roadway, road bed, rails and rolling stock of the several railroad lines in Alameda county as follows: Central Pacific, eighty-three and fourteen one hundredths miles, value per mile, $20,103.74. Atchafon, 100 miles, and Santa Fe, five and forty-five one hundredths miles, value per mile, $15,151.72. Southern Pacific, eleven and ninety one hundredths miles, value per mile, $16,260.19. South Pacific Coast Railway Company, thirty-one and forty-six one hundredths miles, value per mile, $11,898.15. Western Pacific, two and seventy-nine one hundredths miles, value per mile, $4,998.53. Sulfur Company, rate per mile of assessed value of rolling stock, $194.97. INFIRMARY. Dr. Clarke, superintendent of the County Infirmary, reported that the daily average number of inmates of the place was 244. During August, 118 had left or been discharged and thirteen had died. Adjourned. LECTURES ON WAR. E. J. Hibbard spoke to a very large crowd at the tabernacle at the corner of Thirty-third street and Telegraph avenue last evening on "The Course of War." His lecture was illustrated and was listened to with absorbing interest by the entire congregation. Tonight Mr. Hibbard will lecture on "The Battle of Armageddon."

It was Christopher Melody, who has been residing at 309 Seventh street, that was drowned yesterday off the foot of Broadway. Melody is believed to have slipped and fell into the water while attempting to board a schooner which was lying alongside the wharf. As the man floundered about in the water he was hauled ashore by Agent McCabe of the Southern Pacific Company, but he died en route to the hospital. Friends identified the remains this morning and scouted the idea that Melody had committed suicide. The man was a laborer and 40 years of age. A funeral is to be held into his death.

CROSSWAYS ROBBERY STILL A MYSTERY

MRS. STUYVESANT FISH,

Whose Secretary Was Recently Robbed of Goodly Sum.

Secretary of Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Is Anxious to Learn Whether Thief Was Servant Or a "Raffles."

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—There is a cloud of mystery surrounding the recent robbery of $850 from the secretary of Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, which earnest investigation has failed to dispel. The robbery took place at "The Crossways." He is extremely anxious to determine whether the thief was a servant in the Fish household, or a regular Raffles. The trick was cleverly done, and it is reported that this is not the first case which has been called to the attention of the police by representatives of Mrs. Fish.

Mrs. James Gerard Jr., the beautiful young society matron, who has been the guest of Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish for some weeks past, is evidently more than usually clever in the role of a detective. She took much interest in the theft of the money, and has given valuable information to the police after putting all the servants in the household through the third degree, as close questioning is called by the police. It is thought that there will soon be a clue discovered which will lead to the arrest of the guilty party or parties.

So hard did he fight that the fellows were glad to jump from the wagon and run away. He reported the matter to a constable, but the men had run away entirely.

young man until the police arrived. The father swore a complaint against Brown this morning, charging him with burglary.

BOUGHT INFORMATION.

Brown said this morning, when interviewed, that he went to the parish house seeking information to one of the Paulist Fathers of San Francisco, with whom he was acquainted. He entered the house without knocking, thinking it a public place. He then went to several of the rooms, so he says, to find Father Session, whom he had been told of by Robert McKenzie, the young St. Mary's college student, who was in jail at the same time that Brown was awaiting trial on a charge of petit larceny. Brown says he saw several trinkets and some money in the rooms and he claims that he was seized with the desire to steal, and being unable to control himself, committed the theft.

Brown was arrested about a month ago for stealing small articles from several offices about town. He was charged with burglary, which was later reduced to a charge of petit larceny, upon which he was released last Thursday on probation by Police Judge Samuels. At that time Brown was warned to keep out of trouble, but he was back again by Saturday night on a more serious charge.

WROTE TO PARENTS.

The young thief admitted this morning that his parents live in St. Louis, but his father's name or business he would not reveal. Brown says that he has only been on the coast on a pleasure or sight-seeing trip, and claims to receive a regular remittance from his father. While he was in jail for a month, previous to his latest escapade, he wrote to his relatives and told them he was going into the country and that they would not hear from him, while in fact he was locked up in a cell in the local city prison.

"I don't know why I have committed these thefts," said Brown, when interviewed by a TRIBUNE reporter this morning. "I have always had plenty of money and did not need to steal. I believe, as in every instance when I have taken anything, I have been seized with an uncontrollable desire to steal. I believe that if I were given a six-months' sentence I could be cured. I desire to be kept in confinement, but I do not want to go 'across the bay' if I can help it. If they do send me over, however, I will have to abide by it."

REFINED LOOK.

Brown has a refined look and would not be taken for a criminal. He is rather handsome and dresses well. He is tall for his age and claims to have received a college education in a Christian Brothers' institution in the east.

The young man's preliminary examination will be set for hearing by Police Judge Samuels tomorrow morning.

which lies about 800 miles northwest of Honolulu. About twenty United States marines are stationed there, besides the operators for the cable company. At high tide the land rises about ten feet from the water.

On her maiden trip from New York around the Horn to enter the Oriental service on this coast the Mongolia ran into a sandbar on the coast of Brazil near Pernambuco. On her first voyage across the Pacific, while leaving the harbor of Yokohama the propeller picked up an anchor chain and the vessel was disabled. On account of these two accidents Captain John H. Rinder was superseded by Captain W. F. S. Porter. The voyage which is now interrupted is her eleventh. The Manchuria and Mongolia were two of the most popular passenger vessels in the trans-Pacific service.

Captain Porter is regarded as one of the most practical and careful shipmasters of the Pacific. Aside from the regular passenger list of first and second class, of whose number and personnel the Pacific Mail office of this city is not advised, there are on board between 300 and 400 Asiatics, mostly Japanese, who were to have been landed at Honolulu.

The liner Mongolia is commanded by Captain W. F. S. Porter, and his officers are as follows: Purser, A. E. Rennie; chief engineer, William Chisholm; first assistant engineer, Bunker; chief steward, Hawes; surgeon, Dr. Hieronymous.

The Mongolia measures 590 feet in length, 65.3 feet in beam, and has 31.1 feet depth of hold. The vessel was launched from the yards of the New York Shipbuilding Company at Camden, New Jersey, in 1904. The net tonnage of the steamer is 8750.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Yesterday was a great day in the Palmer-Schneider revival services at the Tenth-avenue Baptist church, East Oakland. Large audiences attended the evangelists both morning and evening, and a deep interest was manifested in the theme discussed by the preacher. No more effective gospel singer than Mr. Schneider has been heard in Oakland for many a day. These services continue this week each evening. Dr. Palmer's theme tonight is "Why God Spares the Wicked." Tomorrow evening the subject will be "The Devil in Disguise."

PROFESSOR AS SLEUTH

U. C. Instructor Follows Up Posed Thief With Policemen.

CAME HOME RELUCTANTLY

Guy C. Smith and Others Enjoy a Three Days' Automobile Trip.

BERKELEY, Sept. 17.—Professor Clifton Price of the Latin department of the University of California has appeared in a new role. He has achieved distinction as an amateur detective. The following synopsis suffices for explanation: Title of the drama: "The Mystery of the Bricks and the B. p. b. of Professor Clifton Price." Dramatis Personae: John T. Victor, brick contractor; Professor Clifton Price, of the University of California; William F. Bolt, building contractor; Marshall Vollmer, and several Berkeley potmen.

Scene 1. University terrace. Professor Clifton Price discovers a new use of "it" in Caesar and simultaneously hears the sound of bricks falling into a wagon. Notes the page and line of the philosophical and turns down the lights. Carefully raises the window curtain and peers into the darkness. Discovers a moving figure in front of the unfinished residence of Recorder "Humile" Sutton, beloved by the students of the State university.

The professor drops noiselessly from his window to the grass beneath, and, in his stocking feet, makes his way through the tall weeds. Is just in time to see a grim visaged individual throw the last of the brick pile into a spring wagon, jump into the seat and yell "giddap."

AT THE PHONE. Scene II. Professor Price at the telephone. Calls up Berkeley 1807. "Hello, is this the police?" "Well, a gigantic plot is on foot to deposit the building materials for Recorder Sutton's new house at the bottom of San Francisco bay, apparently engineered by disgruntled students." "Very well, I shall then follow the wagon until relieved."

Scene III. Entrance to Idora park, where the bold thefts of Robin Hood are being portrayed. Wagon appears loaded with bricks. Professor Price follows close after, hatless, breathless and in his stocking feet. Then three Berkeley policemen on bicycles. Officers dismount and place teamster under arrest. Professor Price joyous. Leads the quintette in an "Oakley woe woe."

Scene IV. Berkeley police station. Professor Price insulating. Teamster protesting. Teamster gives his name as John T. Victor, brick contractor. Marshall Vollmer sings up William F. Bolt, who is building the Sutton home. Marshall Vollmer: "So Victor owns the bricks. Sorry to disturb you. Good bye."

Exit the mysterious teamster. Exit Professor Price.

MEN ROB WOMAN AND BURN HOUSE

COVINGTON, Ky., Sept. 17.—Masked robbers this morning entered the home of Mrs. John Grant, bound and gagged her, and carried her some distance from her home, to which they set fire, after looting it. Mrs. Grant was found unconscious, and taken to a hospital.

They also had some fresh trout and when it came time for the trip to return to Oakland they did so with reluctance. Saturday night they stopped at Hollister, continuing their journey yesterday. They covered in all 500 miles and escaped with only five punctures.

Light Registration in San Francisco.

The Chronicle lugubriously complains that the registration in San Francisco is too low. Registration closes on the 26th of this month, and a little more than 30,000 names are on the register, less than one-third the registration two years ago, when it ran up to 97,000. Unless there is a great rush to register during the next ten days, the vote of San Francisco will fall below 40,000 at the coming election.

What effect will this decrease in the vote of the metropolis have on the result next November? That the refugees who have come in since the fire will materially change the complexion of the vote in several of the bay counties may be taken for granted. This change is likely to be manifested in Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin and San Mateo in a more pronounced degree than elsewhere, for it is to those counties that the larger proportion of the industrial population, forced out of San Francisco by the conflagration, have taken up their residence. In consequence the vote of this group of counties promises to be very large, provided the refugees register.

As a political power San Francisco will drop temporarily below Los Angeles and barely keep in the lead of Alameda. This will make Los Angeles the big power in the convention two years hence, unless the State Committee should discard this year's vote as the basis of apportionment.

San Francisco, or rather Abe Ruef, went to Santa Cruz with a delegation of 159 strong to 129 for Los Angeles county and 76 for Alameda county. In November it is a reasonable certainty that Alameda will cast a considerably larger Republican vote than San Francisco, and hence will have a larger representation in the Republican State Convention of 1908, provided the apportionment is based on the vote cast this year.

There is likely to be a dispute over the apportionment, because taking the vote of 1904 as the basis would be as unjust to the other counties of the State as taking the vote this year would be unfair to San Francisco.

It must be admitted that the condition is abnormal so far as San Francisco is concerned, and abnormal cases call for abnormal treatment. San Francisco will be entitled to a larger representation in 1908 than her vote this year will justify, but so long as her delegation goes to convention like a flock of sheep driven by a single shepherd, the smaller her representation the better it is for the Republican party and the politics of the State. Mr. Ruef's representation may be cut down without injury to San Francisco or the State at large.

The announcement that the Southern Pacific will erect a general office building at the junction of Fourteenth and Franklin streets to house the officials of the company on this side of the bay is important. It is another proof of the growing importance of Oakland as a traffic center. Heretofore the Southern Pacific officials, not provided for in the ferry building, have been scattered at various points around the city, which has created inconvenience for the public and the company. It has at last become necessary to centralize the administration and traffic officers in the business quarter of the city. Hence the company has decided to erect a suitable building on its property adjoining the narrow-gauge depot. Things are moving in Oakland to be sure.

Bryan's Dilemma in New York.

Mr. Bryan is having it borne in upon him that much of the enthusiasm displayed for him in the Eastern press anterior to his coming from Europe was merely simulated. The multi-millionaires of the Democratic party conceived that it would be an excellent scheme to play Bryan off against Hearst, so they took up the cry that Mr. Bryan had broadened in the course of his travels abroad; had modified his views materially and become quite conservative. Even the corporation Republican organs took up the acclaim, and for a time it looked as though the Bryan boom would embrace all classes.

But Bryan did not take the conservative bait; he proved to be the same old radical that he has always been, advocating a graduated income tax and government ownership of railroads. This was a sore disappointment to the Belmonts, Ryans, Hills and other railway millionaires who are Democrats, nominally at least. It was equally disheartening to their Republican plutocratic friends, who hate Roosevelt only a little less than they hate Hearst.

As a result we see the New York Times, controlled by August Belmont, ostensible Democrat, and the New York Sun, controlled by J. P. Morgan, ostensible Republican, daily roasting Bryan and booming William Travers Jerome for Governor of New York. The Sun has said that the next Governor of New York will be a Democrat and that the next Governor of New York will be the next President of the United States. In the attitude of the Times and Sun it is easy to discern a political accord between Belmont and Morgan.

Jerome has been taken up ostensibly as the representative of the Bryan sentiment in the Empire State to prevent Hearst from getting the Democratic nomination for Governor. If Jerome should get the nomination and be elected, he would straightway forget Bryan and become a candidate for President himself, as Cleveland did in 1884. If Hearst should be nominated and elected he would become the Presidential candidate of the Democratic party by force of circumstances and the pressure of popular opinion. In any event, Bryan would be out of it.

The only hope for the Nebraskan, therefore, is for his friends to give the gubernatorial nomination to Jerome and vote for the Republican candidate on election day.

The threatened intervention of the United States in Cuba promises to destroy the remaining remnant of President Palma's popularity. Palma is therefore trying to make a composition with the insurgent leaders in advance of the arrival of Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon. News from the island indicates that in case he fails in this attempt the government's adherents will make common cause against the United States that would be unpleasant indeed. But there seems a likelihood that the factions will come to any understanding that will render intervention unnecessary. All this country desires is peace and order in Cuba, and so long as they prevail will abstain from interfering in the domestic concerns of the island. If Palma and the insurgents come to an agreement to cease hostilities the American people will be gratified, for they are reluctant to meddle in Cuban affairs further than is absolutely necessary to prevent protracted civil war.

Two-thirds of the voting population of Russia would be denied the right of suffrage if voting were based on literacy. There are some precincts in this country where the vote would be pretty light, too, if the illiterate voters were barred from the polls.—Chicago Record-Herald

Don't You Believe It's Dying.

The Fresno Republican delivers a funeral oration over the Democratic party, which, the Republican declares, is about to die. Dearly beloved, don't fool yourself. The Democratic party has been killed so often, only to come to life fighting like a drunken tinker, that dying once more doesn't count for much. Like Fuzzy Wuzzy in Kipling's ballad, "E's mostly shammin' when 'e's dead." Perhaps the Republican editor remembers the scathing article printed in the Chicago Times after the Presidential election of 1880, in which the Democratic party was declared to be dead, damned and handed over to the devil. It was reprinted in every Republican paper in the land, and accepted as the news of a happy deliverance from a political old man of the sea. Just two years later the dead one got on his feet and gave the Republican party the licking of its life, and two years thereafter elected one Grover Cleveland as President. Don't remember, friend? Have you read the returns from Maine and Vermont? We California Republicans are on the eve of another campaign; let us not deceive ourselves with the notion that the Democracy is getting ready to die. It is getting ready to fight, and fight good and hard. Let us get ready to hammer the beast, not weep over it for a corpse. Like Fuzzy Wuzzy, it's got one eye open and a good grip on its knife. The Democratic party is too mean to die. Don't forget that.

We trust Congressman Hayes will not begin actual hostilities against Japan before there is a real occasion for war. This country does not want war with anybody, and there is not the slightest reason to suppose that Japan will go to war if we refuse Japanese coolies and Koreans admission into the United States. Why, then, talk about war, as Mr. Hayes did at Redwood City? Fight talk always arouses the fighting spirit, while a soft answer turneth away wrath. It is not a good thing for peace and international comity for American candidates to go around trailing their coats and brandishing shillelahs.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Your editorial in a recent issue of THE TRIBUNE, on the above subject, has set me wondering where you got your information. Some one has surely visited you. Possibly one of those parties who induced our Governor to stand for renomination recently. If it is compiled from a consular report, well, as our genial Governor can truly say, "God forgive us for leeching." Et tu Brute!

The English wild rabbit is no more a Belgian hare or like a Belgian hare than Pardee is like Ruef. They would be classed by naturalists as belonging to the same genus, and there the comparison ends. For thirty years past the rabbit has been the scourge of pastoral pursuits, both in Australia and New Zealand, more particularly the latter, as its subsoils are nearly all gravel. Thirty years ago I have seen buildings as large as the building you occupy piled to the roof with dried rabbit skins, twenty to the pack, and the sorrowful part of it was that these skins in the warehouse of the storekeeper represented, not exchanges for commodities, but barter for tea, sugar and flour. The settlers were there on their holdings from half to a square mile each, unable to grow crops or grass or fodder because of the rabbits. For years and years, until they exterminated the pest, they were forced to eke out a precarious hand-to-mouth existence by trapping and slaughtering rabbits and selling the skins at any price the storekeeper saw fit to give to offset the credit given them for the necessities of life. In spite of the trapping, they still increased on adjacent holdings that were held for the unearned increment; until these very absentees were forced by mutual defense to try and still the plague. Moses' plagues were slight circumstances to the devastation little bunny night and day was causing. Crops were nibbled off as soon as they appeared, and instead of carrying from one to four sheep to the acre, sheep-raisers were carrying from two to ten acres; aye, even fifteen, to the sheep. All for Mr. Bunny. So more stringent measures were adopted, State laws were made, rabbit districts formed, rabbit taxes levied, rabbit inspectors were appointed, and a universal raid on the haunts of Brer Rabbit began. To further help the work, chemists tried their dopes—bi-sulphide of carbon and phosphorized oats. The latter, I believe, proved the most efficacious; but the agony the poor animals suffered cannot be conjectured. For two or three years part of the plant of every farm-house was a fifty-gallon copper vat, supported on brick foundations, for heating the oats and stirring in the phosphorus.

In districts where the rabbit was only getting a foothold, all the settlers combined together and erected a close wire net fence, three feet above the ground and eighteen inches or a foot underneath; up hill and down dale, over mountain ranges and wooded valleys, in one continuous line, sometimes for over a hundred and twenty miles, to keep the rodent out of their pastures. Just figure out the expense in your leisure moments.

When a fresher came on and covered the lowlands all hands on the farm, from the toddler of six years to the grandmother of sixty, armed themselves with pitchforks and billets, and beating the scrub all along both sides of the floodwaters, pitchforked the live rabbits out of the bracket and the scrub into the floodwaters to drown.

In these days, too, the sportsman going out for game would always have the odds given him that if he went in certain localities he could never bring down a single rabbit. They were so thick that if he let off his gun it would be the same as shooting into a flock of geese on the Yukon. Then, also, some lover of parasites attenuated some particular form of tapeworm, and after inoculating a score or two of rabbits, male and female, let them loose to increase and multiply and deplete their race. "I know," you say, "just like Ruef!" So with all these strenuous, continuous efforts and expenditures of time, muscle, brains and money the pest has been abated.

I am not going to combat your figures because I do not know where you got them, but canning rabbit companies were common thirty years ago, before Morton of Sydney had evolved the principle of refrigeration and cold storage, and shiploads of pelts were sent to London and Paris at the same time to be converted into Stetson hats. While I should like to know where you derived your information from, I am more concerned in asking you to see this side of the matter, as unless your remarks, which have been given undue prominence are corrected, some fool of a fellow, taking your words for gospel, will imagine he sees a new way of becoming a Rockefeller and import a scourge into our State. The codlin moth, the red scale, the sparrow pest and the grasshopper plague, all combined, will not do one-tenth of the harm the rabbit will.

Let alone, one pair of rabbits will in four years increase to over one million and a quarter.

Yours truly, F. P. ROYLE.

NEW WITNESS TO AID GIRL

Policeman Murrell Will Testify In Behalf of May Aberley.

Another witness has come forward to give favorable testimony for May Aberley, the 16-year-old girl who is being detained at the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital to await a further examination on Tuesday morning, when it will be determined whether she is feeble minded as charged by Miss Whitney, president of the Associated Charities.

Officer Charles Murrell of the local police force states that he is the policeman referred to by May in her testimony, when she said that she had applied to a guardian of the law for a place to get work. The witnesses against May stated that the officer was forced to take her into custody and place her in the hospital as a wayward girl. This Murrell denies emphatically and states that he will be on hand Tuesday if the examination is held at 4 o'clock in the morning.

May passed a quiet day yesterday and had few visitors. She still asserts that all she wants is a place to work in where she will get wages. Should she be discharged from custody on Tuesday a grave question arises as to what will be done with her. She cannot be sent to a reformatory because she has committed no crime. The court will not order her sent to a home for feeble-minded children if the physicians say she is sane, and yet the past record of the girl showing that she was forced to become wayward because of unfavorable surroundings and no pay, may cause her to return to this life if she does not obtain employment.

Rev. J. C. Bolster was a recent visitor in Suisun.

PROVED SHE IS HEROINE

Worked Over Injured In Wreck of Train On Which She Made Journey.

Mrs. Jenkin B. John, formerly Miss Ruth Morse of this city, has had the opportunity of proving herself a heroine during a railroad wreck which occurred on her wedding journey.

Immediately after their wedding, several days ago, Mr. and Mrs. John left this city for a wedding tour through the East, intending to visit Miss Alverta Morse, a sister of the bride, who has won fame as a singer in New York. When near Albuquerque, N. M., the train on which they were traveling was wrecked and many of the passengers were injured. Mrs. John and her husband were among those who escaped with minor injuries, and then it was that the young and pretty bride of a few days proved her ability to act in an emergency. For hours she worked among the injured, only pausing in her labor of mercy when all those in need had been succored. With the means at hand she dressed the injuries of the wounded and made every preparation possible for the coming of the relief train. She was highly complimented by the surgeons, who arrived after a long delay and found that the first necessary work of relief had been accomplished by the brave little volunteer nurse. Mrs. John is a sister of Mrs. Henry Melvin of this city.

LAST WEEK OF "ROBIN HOOD"

"The Idol's Eye," Herbert's Comic Opera, Booked for Idora Park Next.

This will be the last week of "Robin Hood" and will make the run of this opera the longest of any theatrical production ever given in this State outside of San Francisco. No other satirical comedy has been so successful in the past.

The next production at Idora will be Victor Herbert's comic opera "The Idol's Eye," which is being given at the Idora Park. The opera is a comedy of the most charming and brilliant character as is every production of the Idora Park. Victor Herbert, who is unquestionably the foremost composer of comic opera living today. His works have been given in every theatre and selection from "The Serenade," "Portune Teller," "Babes in Toyland," etc., are seen on every band and orchestra program.

The open air concert yesterday evening by the combined Idora Opera band, which holds forth at the open air skating rink, and the Idora Opera orchestra proved a great attraction and over one thousand people remained at the park to hear this splendid aggregation of musicians. William Ashwood conducted and played the solo cornet numbers.

CONSTANCE CRAWLEY. Constance Crawley, the famous English actress, and her splendid company will give their third matinee at Ye Liberty playhouse Friday afternoon, presenting "Hedda Gabler," the play which she discussed in modern dramatic literature. "Hedda Gabler" is a long play and consequently it is necessary to change the hour.

This wild creation of the Norwegian master has been played by Mrs. Fiske, Florence Roberts, Blanche Bates and others and the theater goes will make it doubly interesting to see Mrs. Fiske play the part of Hedda. The play is a more interesting and beautiful interpretation of it than any of her predecessors, none of whom possessed the charm of action and beauty of voice that this gifted Englishwoman is so possessed of.

Seats for this performance will be on sale tomorrow morning at the box office of Ye Liberty and the prices will range from $1 down to 25 cents.

Hasty Nervous Chewing of Food the Cause of Dyspepsia

Grape-Nuts

If your teeth are fit, chew, chew, until the food is liquid and insists on being swallowed.

If the teeth are faulty, soften Grape-Nuts with hot milk or cream, or allow to stand a minute soaking in cold cream.

"There's a reason," as follows:

Grape-Nuts food is in the form of hard and brittle granules, intended to be ground up by the teeth; that work not only preserves the teeth but brings down the saliva from the gums, so necessary in the primary work of digestion.

Many people say (and it is true) that when they eat Grape-Nuts they seem able to digest not only that food but other kinds which formerly made trouble when eaten without Grape-Nuts.

Chew!

OPERATION AVOIDED

EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped It

When a physician tells a woman suffering with serious feminine trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for just such operations.

Miss Margaret Merkley

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of menaenag female troubles cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after physicians have advised operations, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margaret Merkley, of 275 Third Street Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, bearing down pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said I had a female trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The operation quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well.

Female troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive—if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing down pains, don't neglect yourself, try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LOSES FOUR OF HIS TEETH

Stableman Gets Into an Argument and Is Hit With Pickhandle.

W. H. Gates, a stableman, fifty years of age living at Nineteenth and Broadway, became engaged in an argument with a police officer, who hit him in the mouth with a pick handle. Dr. Rice of the Receiving Hospital discovered upon examination that Gates had lost four of his teeth in the fight and the victim reported saying that he could choose a less brilliant opponent hereafter.

NOSE AND KNEES BECOME TANGLED

Dazed with drink, his nose and knees badly lacerated, J. Dalzel residing at 940 Chestnut street was found by the police at Twenty-second and Market streets shortly before midnight Saturday and taken to the Receiving Hospital where his injuries were dressed. Dalzel, who could not make a coherent statement as to the manner in which he arrived at the place where he was discovered, stated that he was returning to his home from San Francisco via the Key Route and had alighted at a station when he was surrounded by three men and robbed of his watch. The police think that Dalzel jumped off at Adelino street and received his injuries in that way. He was locked up at the City Hall on a charge of drunkenness.

MAKES MISTAKE MISSES STAKE

Overlooks Meat, Brings Cleaver Down on the Chef's Wrist.

C. C. Hangood, the chef of Owen and Starr's restaurant, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon while performing his duty in the kitchen. He attempted to get a piece of meat as the butcher was chopping a steak and the latter, not noticing Hangood's action, brought the cleaver down on the chef's right wrist, severing one of the arteries. Hangood was immediately taken to the Receiving Hospital where Dr. E. J. Rice tied up the artery and put five stitches in the wound.

Doctors Are Puzzled. The remarkable recovery of Kenneth Moller of Vancouver, B. C., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the throat and congestion of the lungs three doctors gave me up to die when as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and I am happy to say I saved my life." Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness and La Grippe. Guaranteed at Osgood Brothers drug stores, Broadway, corner of Seventh and Washington, corner of Twelfth and 5th and 11. Trial bottle free.

TALKED NOT OF CHRIST BUT OF THE BALLOT BOX

MINISTER TELLS OF ITS ABUSES AND USES

CLAIMS IT IS WRONG NOT TO VOTE WHEN TIME
PRESENTS ITSELF.

Says It Is Vain Conceit of Fools
to Take Interest In Only Important Affairs.

Rev. William M. Jones, of the First Unitarian church of Oakland, had for his subject yesterday the uses and abuses of the ballot. Following are some extracts from his discourse:

VOTING NOT A PRIVILEGE.
"The right to vote means that it is right to vote and wrong not to vote, if one is a citizen. It does not carry the privilege of voting or not as we may please. Our fathers fought for this right because of bitter experience
under the rule of one and of a few,
and because they saw that every extension of the franchise tended to make a better State. The story of our Republic shows that its growth into the State usually when the people are least concerned about its conduct, and that when a great matter summons all the citizens to the polls the result is usually such as all the people finally pronounce right and good."

"The right to vote does not include—
it excludes—the privileges of using the ballot in the interest of a political party as such. The only justification
for the activity of a political party in the affairs of the cities and States, is
that through the union of many seekers of the public good the very best
men for the offices of the cities and States may be found and placed before
the people as candidates. That is, the party's activity in local affairs is right
only when the party seeks to help the State to do what the State is trying to do through an election, which is, to find men who will for a season devote
themselves and the powers the State
confers on them solely to the public
good, men who are fitted in mind, in experience and in moral character to bear these grave responsibilities. When
the tide turns the other way, when men
seek to make the State help the party,
to bring into public office men who will
use their official positions with an eye
to the party's good—then something
has gone loose in their minds or in their morals. In either case they are not to be trusted."

TO THE SEMI-GRAFTER.
"This right does not include the privilege of voting to help a friend to office or a job, nor to help corporations or individuals to advance their interests by the action of legislatures, courts or executive officials. The city governments. The only just laws are those that bear equally on all. The only just privileges are those that are bestowed directly or indirectly upon all, and upon each one in exactly the same measure. Let men pay for what they get from the city and the State."

REV. WILLIAM M. JONES.

That can do them no harm. But the evil of evils of the cities and the States is that the prize of unearned benefits to be bestowed by officials turns into politics the grasping and the unprincipled, under whom justice and honor and all the ends the State is ordained to secure are subordinated to personal and corporational greed.

"The right to vote does not include—
it excludes—the privileges of using the
ballot in the interest of a political party as such. The only justification
for the activity of a political party in
the affairs of the cities and States, is
that through the union of many seekers of the public good the very best
men for the offices of the cities and States may be found and placed before
the people as candidates. That is, the
party's activity in local affairs is right
only when the party seeks to help the State to do what the State is trying to
do through an election, which is, to
find men who will for a season devote
themselves and the powers the State
confers on them solely to the public
good, men who are fitted in mind, in
experience and in moral character to
bear these grave responsibilities. When
the tide turns the other way, when men
seek to make the State help the party,
to bring into public office men who will
use their official positions with an eye
to the party's good—then something
has gone loose in their minds or in their morals. In either case they are not to be trusted."

"The citizen at the polls is in that hour and act, the State. His moral obligations are those of the State. He has no right to try to do by his ballot

what it were wrong for the State to do. If it were wrong for the State to do, it would be wrong for the citizen to people to be administered by them in their interests, in part or wholly, then it is wrong for the citizen to try by his ballot to place the control of the State's affairs in the hands of a party, is the affairs in the hands of a party. To vote for a man because he is the representative of a party and the man the party wants in public office for the furtherance of the party's interests, is not only not within the right of the citizen, but is a violation of the right of a citizen."

"The crack of the party whip and the plea of the partisan for party loyalty in election times is an attempt to force men and to persuade them to forsake the only right principle for their guidance in the discharge of one of the highest functions of manhood. That should be said, even when the partisan believes that the men named on the party ticket are the best men for the offices—best because of what they are as men, wholly apart from their political beliefs and their party affiliations.
But when the partisan knows that the men, or some of the men, are unfit for the places for which the party has named them; when the party's ticket
was made by the elements of the party whose aims are certainly not the public good; when the decent men in the party fought the nomination of some of the candidates for decency's sake as well as for the sake of clean and just administration of the public business—
then the partisan's plea for party loyalty and a 'straight vote' is foul with the breath of treason."

TOLD ABOUT ARBITRATION

The Rev. O. E. Hart Takes Much Talked of Affair for His Sermon.

Arbitration was the subject of a sermon last evening by the Rev. O. E.
Hart, pastor of the Centennial Presbyterian church of East Oakland. Dr.
Hart founded his sermon on the text,
"Christ abolished in himself the enmity, so making peace." After dealing at some length with the evils of armed conflict and the employment of force
in the adjustment of labor difficulties,
Dr. Hart said:

"The history of arbitration reveals many interesting facts, and especially makes plain that war and other conflicts incident to human passion, either between nations, or in the commercial world, can never be preserved by consanguinity, increase of gold or the teachings of any dogma or creed. Arbitration must be of the will, when moral and not physical forces control.
Arbitration must have a basis in justice, truth, human confidence. No power resident in any cabinet, nothing in the storehouse of political intrigue or the powers of unaided human minds can chain the dogs of war or prevent commercial conflicts."

"Christ and his Christianity through his life lived incarnate in believers and in their willing obedience to his 'Golden Rule.' Can there come a cessation of conflicts not from discernment or weakness, but from the supremacy of love, justice, truth, mercy?"
"The Palestine Exploration society in 1871 found a tablet from the partition
wall of the temple forbidding Gentiles
to enter on pain of death; but Christ
has broken down the wall of partition,
slain the enemy, so making peace.
Some things are more than nationwide; they are race, world-wide."

"Christ unites the race elements, and reconciles the united race to God by propitiation for sin and expiation of guilt."
"He now signs and delivers his emancipation proclamation and himself becomes the Arbitrator between the soul
and sin."
"When the people came to take him
by force and make him a king he declined their offer. Love is the law, and he will ascend to the throne by the will of the cross."

ACCIDENT ROBS CHILD OF EYE

Toy Gun in Hand of Playmate Pierces Pupil of the Organ.

Little Philip Hambleton, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Hambleton of 1274 East Twenty-second street, Fruitvale, will lose the sight of one, and probably both, of his eyes as a result of the right one being pierced with an argon in the hands of a playmate.

Mrs. Hambleton and little Philip had been spending their vacation in Lake County. The child had made a number of friends in the place and on Friday
one of the boys had the time of his life.
One of the boys had an argon and they were all having a good time with it.

The little fellow who owned the gun was strutting around like a "real soldier" with the argon on his shoulder, when he suddenly jumped back for some reason. Little Philip happened to be standing directly behind the lad,
and was laughing with glee at his play-mate's antics. As the latter jumped backward the gun entered Philip's eye,
cutting a hole clear through the pupil.
The little fellow shrieked with the pain,
but did not lose consciousness. People gathered about, and the child was taken to his mother, who was almost prostrated by the accident.

WORD TO FATHER.
A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Hambleton, who is a driver for McClung & Co. oil and gasoline dealers in this city. Mr. Hambleton hurried to Lake County and brought the child to this city. Dr. H. Kohlmoo, the eye specialist, was sent for and he has been treating the little fellow ever since. Both of the lad's eyes are tightly bandaged in the hope of saving the sight, and the child is as patient
as can be under the treatment.

Dr. Kohlmoo, the attending physician, stated today:
"I am in constant attendance upon the little fellow, and am, of course, doing everything possible to save his sight. It is barely possible that an operation will be successful. If the eye is not infected it will make it much easier to save. I feel assured, however, that we can save the sight of a left eye, although it too is in a serious condition. It was a very serious accident, and the injury to the eye could hardly have been worse."

SAYS HE WAS DRUNK 5 YEARS

Wife of Well-Known Liquor Dealer, Sues Husband for Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.—The latest sensation in the divorce court is the complaint of Annie M. Ferguson against Thomas M. Ferguson of the T. M. Ferguson Company, liquor dealers. An excessive use of goods dealt in by his company, as well as cruelty and a lax observance of his marital obligations, are among the charges brought by the wife. She says that Ferguson has been drunk almost continuously for the last five years and that she has never seen nor heard from him since a night in March, 1903, when he came home intoxicated, fell on the floor in a stupor and remained there till 5 o'clock in the morning, when he made his final exit from the house.

Before the first Mrs. Ferguson had filed another complaint against her husband. This was not destroyed, but it asked only for maintenance. As she has now determined to sue for divorce,
the former suit will be dropped.

The Fergusons were married May 14, 1893, and have one child, Chester Ferguson, aged 12. The wife asserts that Ferguson is not a fit person to have the custody of the child, though she asks that he be made to provide for its support. The defendant is said to have transferred 41,500 shares in the Tasmania Ranch Oil and Development Company to William H. Chapman. The plaintiff alleges that the stock was transferred to Chapman for the purpose of keeping it away from her, and she prays that the court may enjoin Ferguson from taking the stock or any of his property and leaving the State, as she says she fears he intends to do. Petitioner Judge Graham has granted a temporary restraining order pending
the trial of the divorce.

Ferguson's other property consists of his interest in the saloon at 733 Market street, this city, and the saloon on Broadway, near Seventh street, Oakland, represented by his 150 shares in the T. M. Ferguson Company. The wife asks for $200 a month alimony, claiming that her husband's income is $500 a month, as well as $100 for counsel fees and $100 for costs of the suit. She hints at improper conduct with various women, but mentions no names.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 17.—Word has reached the Atchison, Topeka &
Santa Fe office here of the derailment
of the Missouri River Flyer, train No.
10, eastbound, at 6 o'clock this morning three miles west of Winsley, Kan. A baggage car, a coach and a chair car left the rails and were turned over.

Fourteen of the passengers received more or less serious injuries, but none were killed. The accident was caused by a soft track, the roadbed being covered with water at the time.

The train was ten hours late and running very slow.
